Dear Madam,

My name is Radesh Hillary, and I am writing to you this email on behalf of my Research Project team. As our research project we as a team are very interested in becoming involved in a research in the below mentioned Subject Areas . We have identified 4 main domain problems existing currently and we have listed the solutions that we are looking forward to implement.

We would be glad if you could kindly go through the attached documents and let us know your valuable feedback. Madam, it would be great if you could schedule us a meeting if you're interested so that we can explain more related to these topics.

Appreciate if you could guide us on this matter on the scope whether it carries the right amount of weight for a research project and provide us necessary guidance on the required enhancements and amendments

Identified Problems & Solutions

Problem	Solutions
Time delay and issues faced during a normal claim's procedure during an accident	Automated insurance claims processing (Knowledge Inspired Computing)
Plastic and environmental pollution	Plastic segregation in a smart way (Knowledge Inspired Computing/ ML)
Size variations and issues during online clothing purchase	Virtual fit on experience (Knowledge Inspired Computing)
Time delay in online shopping	Personalized item basket predictor (Machine Learning)
